Speaker: Ted Hile, Century Design, Inc.

Ted Hile is an accomplished business development and project manager with over two decades of experience in the aircraft and composites industry, as well as broad exposure to other materials systems. During careers with Loctite Corporation, General Plastics Manufacturing Company, and now CDI (Century Design Inc.), Ted has managed programs and projects launching new materials and manufacturing concepts while adding value to customer products. At CDI, his current focus is on business strategies raising manufacturing quality, efficiency and profitability in composite material manufacture and downstream processing, working with a world-wide customer base. Ted holds both a Bachelor's degree in History and a Master's in Business Administration from Pacific Lutheran University, and has studied in China, Switzerland, and Norway. He claims enjoying Lutefisk and reindeer.
