October Chapter Meeting

Our first meeting of the 2016-2017 year will be held at the Museum of Flight and feature two talks. The first presentation will be given by Gregg Balko, CEO of SAMPE. His talk will feature information about the current state of SAMPE, including exciting task forces that have been established to strengthen SAMPE's influence in the advanced materials and manufacturing industries.

After dinner, Bob Kisch, a Boeing Technical Fellow and Boeing Designated Expert in composites automation for BR&T, will give a talk about the history of composites at The Boeing Company. Bob Kisch worked with Sarah Musi, a Production Engineer with BCA New Airplane Development and Engineering Historian with Boeing Historical Archives, to build this unique presentation capturing the use and development of composite materials throughout Boeing's history. Please join us for Bob's talk titled: "A Century of Composites at Boeing"
